

Volunteer Role

County Representative

Disability Network Northern Michigan (DNNM) volunteers are responsible for representing DNNM and upholding our mission by raising awareness and impacting communities in our seventeen county service area through outreach, education and advocacy.

Primary Function

To be a DNNM representative in your county and to update DNNM about what is happening in your community.

Accountability

Director Organizational Advancement

Location of Assignment

The county the advocate resides in.

Responsibilities

- Attend one hour volunteer orientation.
- Act as a representative for DNNM at the monthly Human Service Collaborative Board meetings in your county.
- Participate in Community Work Groups or Committees.
- Update DNNM staff on disability related issues or concerns from that county.
- Act as an advocate for people with disabilities, and inform other counties about DNNM's mission and services.
- Communicate weekly or when appropriate with DNNM staff member.
- Report County updates at one staff meeting and one Board of Directors meeting per year.
- Attend additional volunteer training/meetings when needed.

Qualifications

- Communicates clearly.
- Ability to problem solve.
- Outgoing personality.
- Reliable and responsible.

Length of Term

This will be determined on the DNNM Volunteer Agreement form.

Building Communities that Work.